

American Legion Department of Tennessee

1st District, Eastern Division

Subject: Resolution for 1st District Commander for Department of Tennessee

By: Eric Scott Foulks

20 December 2023

To: Department Headquarters

WHEREAS it is with great pride that James McLaughlin 1st District Commander, Otto Buddy Reeves 1st Vice Commander, and John Parker Adjutant Post 21 Rogersville, Department of Tennessee endorses and supports Commander Eric Scott Foulks for the office of 1st District Commander, Department of Tennessee, and

WHEREAS Eric earned his eligibility for membership in the American Legion through his service in the United States Army from November 17, 2000 until his medical retirement May 12, 2012 where he obtained the rank of Staff Sergeant E-6. Eric served for 12 years faithfully and honorably, and

WHEREAS Eric has served as Post 21 Adjutant 2021-2022, Post 21 American Legion Riders Sgt at arms 2021-2022, Post 21 Commander 2022-2024, 1st District Riders Director 2022-2023.

WHEREAS Eric has completed the American Legion Basic Training 2021-2023, and American Legion Department of Tennessee College 2023, and

WHEREAS Eric is an active member of Post 21, he is active in other sister Veterans Service Organizations and Community organizations, he is active and proven to be a dedicated, strong, and experienced leader in all positions he has held, therefore, be it,

RESOLVED that the Officers and members of Post 21 Rogersville, Tennessee, and 1st District Commander James McLaughlin do hereby nominate, endorse, and fully recommend to the Legionaries of Tennessee, Eric Scott Foulks as a candidate for the office of 1st District Commander, Department of Tennessee.

ATTEST

John Parker

Buddy Reeves

James McLaughlin

Adjutant Post 21

1st Vice Commander Post 21

1st District Commander